

Holy Homes - Humility and Teachability

We all know someone who believes they are always right. Pride is one of the ugliest & most destructive sins we can commit. Let's take a look at the opposite of the know-it-all.....the humble and teachable disciple. James 1:19-27 will be a key text for this lesson, so read it over a few times before you begin.

1) How are humility and teachability tied together? What does a lack of humility or teachability do to those involved? Prov 26:12, Prov 18:13, James 1:19-27

2) What attitudes or beliefs can we have which prevent us from being teachable?

3) In order to be truly teachable, how should we react during and after the teaching? (James 1:22 is one piece)

4) Are there circumstances in which we should not be teachable?

5) What does humility and teachability look like? Give some examples. James 1:19-27, Gal 6:1-5

6) Should the teacher affect our teachability? To put it another way, should our teachability look different if we're being taught by a new preacher? Or a false teacher? Or a non-believer? If so, how?
